

Reflection

QUOTE OF THE DAY

The quote of the day was by a Akan proverb, it says only a wise person can solve a difficult problem. This tells me that wise people has multiple ways to figure out problems. They also know when they need help, I think wise people don't need to be the smartest person but they always know what to do incase a problem happens.

How do you know if your wise

Topic of the day

The topic of the day is processing data to solve community problems. The ways you can do this is by collecting data on something that is affecting your community. Collecting data will give more help on fixing the problem in your community.

Community data