Quote of the day

The quote of the day was by Marcus Garvey and it says “A people without the knowledge of their past history, origin and culture is like a tree without roots”. I think this means that you can't be a full person not knowing what your ancestors went through

Topic of the day

Juneteenth is a holiday celebrated in the us, Juneteenth is celebrated because it was the first day slaves found out they were free. I learned today that it took 2 years from when Abraham Lincoln said that the slaves should be freed to actually free the slaves. The reason it took two years is because someone killed the messenger.
